

cpha group membership special offer

Membership in CPhA is an investment in your profession.

CPhA offers group membership opportunities to affiliated companies and organizations with multiple CPhA members in exchange for a discount on group membership dues.

Partnering organizations must collect the dues and membership application information for all new and renewing members to qualify for a dues discount. Only licensed pharmacist members qualify for a group membership promotion. Each group membership must be accompanied by a Group Membership Agreement, signed by CPhA and group, that details the discount agreement.
