Steven C. Feldman Award
Nomination Form

This award recognizes a compounder who is a leader in California compounding by virtue of his or her activities to advance the practice of compounding. This must be illustrated in multiple ways, examples of which might be a combination of any of the following: as a member of the Board of ACP, testifying in front of the Board of Pharmacy, advocating to state and/or federal legislators, giving lectures on compounding, published articles on compounding and public education/outreach. The recipient should be someone who has made significant contributions in compounding; and should be an individual who is well-known amongst his/her colleagues for their advancement of the profession.

The nominee must be a member of CPhA’s Academy of Compounding Pharmacists; may be a pharmacist or a technician and can be nominated by any CPhA member.
