How to Sign in Instruction

Welcome to CPhA's new online member platform. Here you'll learn how to log in to navigate the revamped Member Portal, designed to make your CPhA experience more seamless.

*Please note, even if you already have a CPhA account, you MUST create a new account and password to access the new Member Portal. So let's get started!

Step 1- visit https://pharm.cpha.com/ or click on the link you received in your email. You'll be greeted by the log in page

If you're logging in for the first time with a new or preexisting account, please select "Set Up New Account"

How to Sign in Instruction

Enter EITHER:

- CPhA-associated email, your new password, and your first and last name.
- Click on "Sign up with Google"
- Click on "Sign up with LinkedIn"

Then Click "Set Up" on the bottom

california pharmacists association

How to Sign in Instruction

Our system will automatically detect whether you have a preexisting account. To verify the information, enter the full name associated with your CPhA account. Then click “Check for Existing Records.”

If our system detects your preexisting account, you will find it listed in the space above. Once you have identified your account, click “Select.” Otherwise, click “Select” in the “None of the Above” row. Once you have selected either option, click “Continue.”

california
pharmacists association

How to Sign in Instruction

Click on “Continue”

Next, you’ll be asked to verify your identity and click “Resend Verification”

How to Sign in Instruction

Email Verification: A message with a verification code or link will be sent to your CPhA log in email; click on "Verify"

california pharmacists association

Welcome cathy P!

Thank you for signing up. Once you have verified your email, we will try to match your information to an existing contact in our database. If we cannot find you, we will ask you to provide some additional contact information to complete your registration. You will then be able to access the California Pharmacists Association Portal.

From this portal, you will be able to join or renew your membership, register for events, shop the online store, and more.

Please verify your email address by clicking the following link:

Verify

If you are having any issues with your account, please don't hesitate to contact us by replying to this mail.

Thank you,
California Pharmacists Association

Welcome! You now have full access to the new CPhA Member Portal, where you'll find a wealth of resources tailored just for you.

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please contact us at support@cpha.com